

The airwaves are open to everyone, and any attempt to limit their usage, especially for services as vital as weather and traffic conditions, would be a dis-service to all who count on them on a daily basis. Please do not let the lobbyists for special interest groups and "big money" take away my basic right to safety. Leave my XM Radio alone!!